

2023 SWEETWATER STUDENTS MISSION TRIP

Code of Conduct

Please observe the following while on our trip.

Respect God

- Let your words and actions be Christ-Like
- Honor God with your time
- Serve God joyfully, with gratitude
Do your best at whatever you're asked to do
- Rest after "lights out" so that you can give God your best the next day

Respect others

- Use appropriate, edifying language.
- Include others and look for opportunities to encourage
- Don't gossip or talk negatively about others
- Let others go first
- Don't invade the personal space of others
- Be considerate of your roommates/seatmates
- Listen to and obey your leaders
- Be quiet after "lights out." Others need their rest.
- No PDA – kissing, holding hands, extended contact, etc)
- Treat the people that you minister to as though they are the most important people on earth.

Respect Property

- Don't mistreat the vans lodging, and mission sites
- Don't mistreat the places we visit
- Don't touch the property of others
- Don't go in a other sleeping room other than your own
- Don't leave your room without telling a leader.
- Be careful with the gear we bring and use at mission sites.

Pray for good attitudes, energy,
safe travel, and an incident free week.

Find all the info you need for our trip at www.fbsweetwater.org/swsmt2023

2023 in Tennessee

